

Weddings of Top Interest

By LOUISE FALLS

Four weekend weddings performed in Dallas churches are of wide interest in the South and West. Three of the couples will live in Dallas and one in California after their wedding trips.

Thometz-Estes

Miss Carol Lynn Estes and Michael Christian Thometz were married in Highland Park Methodist Church Saturday at 8 p.m.

The bride is the daughter of Federal Judge and Mrs. Joseph Ewing Estes, 5846 Desco, and the granddaughter of Mrs. R. E. Cox of Fort Worth and the late Mr. Cox, and Mrs. J. G. Estes of Commerce and Dallas and the late Mr. Estes.

The bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Anthony L. Thometz of Sweet Home, Ore.

Dr. William H. Dickinson Jr. officiated, and Bennett Penix and Ivan Shiffers presented music.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a princess gown of peau de soie. The decollete neckline was edged in re-embroidered Alencon lace traced in seed pearls. A narrow bow marked the skirt at the waistline where it opened to show a skirt of Alencon lace which swept beneath the peau de sole cathedral train.

An heirloom circlet of Alencon lace, worn by the bride's mother when she married, caught the brief four-tiered veil of illusion. She carried a bouquet of gardenias, camellias, roses, lilies of the valley, fleur d'amour and ivy.

The bride was graduated from Hockaday and Stanford University where she was a member of Mortar Board, vice-president of the junior class and queen of the Military Ball. The bridegroom was also graduated from Stanford. He was a member of the junior and senior class executive committees and president of Larkin House.

Mrs. George T. Lee was matron of honor and Miss Charlene Jo Blackmore was maid of honor. Both are of Menlo Park, Calif. Bridesmaids were Misses Cynthia Abbott, Sarah Seay Campbell, Gay Gogeh and Mildred Mell of Fort Worth; Martha Mossom, Lucretia Nilan, Sandra Sue Smith of Fort Smith, Ark., and Mrs. Frank D. Wear Jr. of Fort Worth.

Patrick Warren Thometz of Sweet Home, brother of the bridegroom, served as best man. Groomsmen included the bride's brother, Carl Lewis Estes II, William O. Lewis of Sweet Home, Howard J. Taggart of Carmel, Calif., Joe Robert McFarlane of Brownwood, Mr. Lee of Menlo Park, Thomas S. Bywaters, John B. Rusch of New York City, John W. Clark Jr. and R. E. Cox III of Fort Worth.

Ushers were Peter Randels, Mr. Wear, James Mecker, Eray Howard, all of Fort Worth; George Watts III, Clifford Touchstone, Walter Foxworth, Joe Goodson, Jeff Crockett and Curt S. Tamkin of Beverly Hills, Calif.

Dallas County Club was the scene of the reception. After a wedding trip to New Orleans, La., and Sea Island, Ga., the newlyweds will live in Palo Alto, Calif.

Hughston-Ince

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Finley Hughston are on a wedding trip to New Orleans after their Friday evening marriage in Perkins Chapel at Southern Methodist University. Dr. Alsie H. Carleton officiated.

The bride is the former Miss Betty Dell Ince, daughter of Mrs. W. W. Ince, 5543 Emerson, and the late Mr. Ince. She is a graduate of SMU and a member of Phi Beta Phi, the Slipper Club and Cotillon Club. She is a former University of Colorado student.

The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Tom H. Hughston, 3920 Centenary. He is an SMU graduate and a member of Phi Delta Theta.

Judge William B. Hunt of Houston, cousin of the bride, gave her in marriage. Her gown of silk taffeta was fashioned with a molded bodice and a decollete neckline outlined with appliques of Alencon lace traced with pearls and iridescent paillettes. The bouffant bell-shaped skirt, enhanced with garlands of Alencon lace, swept to a wide chapel train. Her veil of illusion extended the full length of the chapel train from a calet of lace and taffeta encrusted with clusters of pearls. She carried a bouquet fashioned from fleur d'amour, stephanotis and an orchid.

Attendants were Miss Nancy Clark Ince, sister of the bride, maid of honor; Mmes J. Robert Bell of Fort Worth, Ben H. Sparkman and Richard S. Wheelock, bridesmaids; Mr. Hughston, his son's best man; William G. Chesnut Jr., William E. Bragg and William Charles Abernathy of Archer City, groomsmen; Richard C. Bernet, Dewey Godfrey, William E. Strother, Robert R. Caldwell, James Street and J. L. Prideaux of Paris, ushers.

Music was presented by Mrs. Sidney G. Terry and Mrs. Malcolm McCorquodale.

The reception was held in the garden at the bride's home. The newlyweds will live at 4222 Newton.

Albrecht-Anspacher

Miss Joan Anspacher became the bride of Stephen Marcellous Albrecht Friday evening in the Church of the Incarnation. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Henry Anspacher, 4512 Arcady.

The bridegroom lived at 5500 West Hanover, and is the son of Mrs. A. M. Albrecht, Edinburg, and the late Mr. Albrecht.

The Rev. E. E. Tate officiated, Russell Brydon and the church choir presented music.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, chose a gown of ivory tissue silk taffeta, the bodice of which was fashioned with brief sleeves and a decollete neckline, outlined with Alencon lace embroidered with pearls. Tiny covered buttons marked the back of the molded bodice. The bouffant princess skirt, enhanced by a bustle of taffeta with Alencon lace, swept to a chapel train. Her veil of illusion extended to floor length from a lace Juliet cap. Her bouquet was made of roses, iris, stephanotis and ivy.

Attendants were Miss LaVern Olney, maid of honor; Miss Elene Gish, Miss Linda Green of St. Petersburg, Fla., and Mrs. William P. Crisler, bridesmaids; Deborah Greene of St. Petersburg, junior bridesmaid.

David Kane was best man. G. B. Schaezler, H. J. Schroder, E. L. Carpenter, T. E. and R. B. Anspacher, the bride's brothers, were groomsmen.

The reception was held in Garrett Hall adjoining the church. After a wedding trip to Mexico, the couple will live in Dallas.

The bride was graduated from the University of Texas where she was a member of Alpha Chi Omega. She belongs to the Slipper and Cotillon Clubs and is a former student of Hollins College in Virginia. Mr. Albrecht is a University of Texas graduate and a former Edinburg Junior College student.

Williams-Sauer

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Blondell Williams will live at 5936 Ross after a wedding trip to Lake Murray, Okla. The couple was married Saturday at 7 p.m. in Holy Trinity Catholic Church, the Rev. William John Stack officiating.

Parents of the couple are Mrs. Charles Vincent Sauer, Shreveport, La., and the late Mr. Sauer, and Mr. and Mrs. E. James Williams, 5027 Lilac Lane. The bride, the former Miss Julia Ann Sauer, lived at 4332 MacArthur.

The bride is a graduate of Texas Woman's University. Mr. Williams received his Bachelor's degree from Georgetown University, Washington, D.C., and was graduated from Southern Methodist University Law School. He also attended the University of Texas Law School.

Given in marriage by her brother, Charles Vincent Sauer, the bride wore a wedding dress of slipper satin, the bodice of which was covered with Chantilly lace. Her fingertip veil of illusion fell from a small cap of seed pearls and iridescents. She carried an orchid surrounded by fleur d'amour and stephanotis.

Miss Katherine Melton of New Orleans was maid of honor. Miss Suzanne Rosamond and Miss Martha Stanney were bridesmaids. The bridegroom's brother, Capt. E. J. Williams Jr. of Ames, Iowa, served as best man. Jere Turner and Richard Cooper of Houston were groomsmen. Charles Theman, John Beall and Robert Jud ushered. Jovan Porterfield presented music.

The reception was held in the Williams' home.
